Dear Jim,

If you had only 10 candlepower daytime you have a helluva audience and a responsive one!

This long after the few minutes we did by phone I'm still getting an exceptional reaction. (Three letters today, one with stamped, return-addressed envelope.)

Not a single nut letter, not a single not literate, and most expressing opinions (favorable to us both).

I have not been publicly active lately, but since I last did your show I can recall radio and TV in New York City, Washington, Memphis, New Orleans, Chicago and Los Angeles and probably a few others. From not one did I receive the reaction I got from these few minutes by phone.

These are not letters from kids. A fair percentage are signed "Mrs." While some may be of the generation that was young in JFK's day, I get the impression that by and large they are older.

No kidding, Jim, it is (for it continues) that good a reaction.

Thanks!
